Become a Leader in Education

Graduate studies in the Faculty of Education provide you with all the essential tools to create inspiring learning opportunities in any professional setting.

Programs that match your reality! Whether you are coursework or research oriented, or prefer to study part time, full time or online, our programs are offered in a variety of formats that meet your aspirations.

Why choose the Faculty of Education to pursue your graduate studies

- Ultra-flexible programs
- An academic community from diverse backgrounds who shares a passion for creating knowledge
- Internationally renowned faculty
- A campus located in the heart of Canada’s capital with many cultural and natural attractions to enjoy
- Enriching opportunities for advancement
Flexible and varied programs

- Graduate degrees
- Online Master of Education (MEd) — coursework option
- Master of Education (MEd) — coursework option
- Master of Education (MEd) — major research option
- Master of Arts (MA) — thesis option
- Doctor of Philosophy (PhD)

Concentrations and research topics

In addition to its many program types, the Faculty offers a range of concentrations and research topics for you to guide your academic path according to your professional and scholarly interests.

- Counselling Psychology
- Educational Leadership, Evaluation, Programs and Policy
- Societies, Cultures and Languages
- Health Education
- Program Evaluation
- Teaching and Learning
- Second Language Education
- Feminist and Gender Studies
- Canadian Studies

Admission requirements

Admission requirements vary depending on the program of study and concentration chosen. It is important to read all of our admission requirements and procedures before submitting an application.

Go to catalog.uOttawa.ca/programs to learn more about the requirements for each program.

BECOME A LEADER IN EDUCATION TODAY. APPLY NOW!

Find out more about all the opportunities for graduate studies at the Faculty of Education. Go to education.uottawa.ca/graduate-studies